

SPECIAL NOTICES.

WILL THE FOLLOWING PERSONS PLEASE call at 608 Keno building regarding allotment check:

Baron Richie, 415 24th st. n.w.
Baker, 415 24th st. n.w.
Baker, 415 24th st. n.w.

SPECIAL MEETING OF W. A. FRASER CAMP, No. 10, W. A. M. E. Lodge, 1000 Continental Bldg., Thursday, 12:30 p.m., for purpose of attending funeral of our late sovereign, Halcyon.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCK-owners of the National Savings and Trust Company, for the purpose of electing directors and for such other business as may properly come before them, will be held at the office of the company, northeast corner of 15th and New York ave. n.w., on Monday, the 19th day of January, 1920, at 10 a.m.

E. PERCIVAL WILSON, Secretary.

BUILDING LABORERS' INTERNATIONAL Protective Union of America, Local Union No. 2 of Washington, D. C.—We hereby notify the master builders and plasterers that on and after Monday, February 16, 1920, the wages of local carriers will be 75c per hour.

THOMAS B. MANN, President.

J. Z. HUTTON, Secretary.

REHABITILES AND JONADAB WILL ASSEMBLE at the city post office, Wed. Jan. 14, 7:30 a.m., to attend a rally at Liberty Hut.

T. W. NEWMAN, H. C. R.

J. C. POSTER, Jr.

TO TENANTS: THE LEGAL DEPARTMENT OF THE "TENANTS' PROTECTIVE LEAGUE" has advised its members and will present their grievances before the rent commission on Monday, Jan. 19, 1920, at 10:00 a.m. CONTINENTAL TRUST BUILDING, Phone Franklin 3778, 14th St. n.e.

THE HOME BUILDING ASSOCIATION of the District of Columbia is holding its monthly meeting on Monday, Jan. 19, 1920, at 8:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. J. H. Hutton, 1007 Pa. ave. n.w. Save while you may, you will always be able to spend. Treasurer's office, 1007 Pa. ave. n.w. Secretary's office, 725 20th st. n.w.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCK-owners of the Atlantic Building Company will be held at the office of the company, 118 Fairfax street, Alexandria, Va., on Thursday, January 22, 1920, at 11 o'clock a.m. This meeting is for the election of officers and directors for the ensuing year and for such other business as may come before the meeting.

M. M. PARKER, President.

LOUIS BEYER, Jr., Secretary.

THE ANNUAL MEETING OF THE STOCK-owners of the Columbia Granite and Breeding Corporation will be held at its office in Alexandria, Virginia, on Thursday, January 15th, 1920, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of electing directors for the ensuing year and for such other business as may come before the meeting.

M. M. PARKER, President.

G. A. BONNET, Secretary.

LADY, EXPERT SANDWICH MAKER, WILL make sandwiches for merchants and for clubs, teas, etc. Address Box 125-M, Star office.

DURING JANUARY AND FEBRUARY WE are making a special price on old home wiring. We guarantee to leave your home in as good a condition as when we enter; no rewiring necessary. Let us estimate.

THE H. I. S. ELECTRIC CO., Experts in Electrical Work, 111 13th n.w. Main 1234.

10,000 Property Owners Say, To Have It Done Right Get Casey

PLUMBING, HEATING AND TINKING, 3207 14th N.W. Col. 155-1331

Do You Realize

—the condition of the roof? Let us repair it now. 326 12th n.w. IRONCLAD Company, Ph. Main 14.

Leese Will

Make the Kind of Eyeglasses You Need

Big Modern Optical Plant on the premises.

M. A. Leese, OPTICAL CO., 614 9th Street, INCREASE

THE EFFICIENCY OF YOUR HEATING PLANT.

We are equipped to render you service that will get the limit of satisfaction from your heating plant, whether it is hot-water, steam or hot-air. Consult us about price.

COLBERT, 621 F St. N.W. M. 3014

BUY RELIABILITY

IN ROOFWORK. The Shedd experts serve your best, and charge is fair. SHEDD, 706 10th st. n.w. M. 314.

HORSES FOR SALE.

HORSES FOR HIRE.

PLUNKETT'S BOARDING AND DRIVING STABLES, 421-23 N. ST. N.W. PHONE N. 503, 15.

"I NEVER DISAPPOINT."

GOOD PRINTING

—that means comparison. Such is Adams' Printing—high class, but not high price.

THE SERVICE SHOP, BYRON S. ADAMS, PRINTER, 512 11th St.

THE SHADE SHOP

No. 733 12th St. Not on the corner. PHONE MAIN 4574.

Get your Window Shades direct from this reliable factory.

Our 1920 Printing Service and Facilities—better than ever.

National Capital Press, 511 11th St. Phone M. 650 (3 trunk lines).

Stocked Up on Spruce

LUMBER of all kinds. Let us have your orders—small or large. Low Cash Prices.

Geo. M. Barker Co., Inc., 649-651 N. Y. ave., 1517 7th.

LIGHTING FIXTURES.

The winter months being an off season, we are making special reductions on all electric LIGHTING FIXTURES.

Including floor and table lamps.

Be sure to get our estimates before placing your order. "Remember, we are manufacturers."

THE ELMER H. CATTIN COMPANY, 309-311 13th st. n.w.

YOUR OLD FLOORS PLANED, SCRAPED AND repolished; made perfectly brand new. C. Adams, 907 G st. n.e. Phone N. 125.

ATTRACTIVE LOAN PROPOSITION

On Dwellings in the suburbs. Detached or semi-detached homes. Especially for home owners. Apply for details.

THIS F. H. SMITH COMPANY, 815 15th street n.w.

NOTICE

We are prepared to give PROMPT service on all kinds of ROOF, FURNACE and STOVE WORK.

Consult us while materials are available.

R. K. FERGUSON, 1011 9th St. N.W.

Phone M. 166 and 167.

INVESTORS

"Why not start the new year right" by investing a small amount in a proposition that is absolutely on the square and will net great returns. "The wise investigate." Address Box 42-K, Star office, 15.

CLAFIN OPTICAL CO., 907 F St.

Moving Picture Glasses.

ROOF LEAKING?

CALL MAIN 760.

Also Stoves and Furnaces Repaired.

Grafton & Son, Inc., Tr. Bldg. M. 760

"Roofing Experts for 35 Years."

WE ARE ABLE TO FURNISH AND INSTALL AT SHORT NOTICE REPAIRS FOR STOVES, RANGES, ROLLERS AND FURNACES.

ALL WORK GUARANTEED. PHONE N. 1000.

J. C. FLOOD & CO., 2114 14th St. N.W.

Honesty is a prevailing virtue among most Chinamen. Some of them in their native towns and cities leave their places of business unguarded while they go off for half an hour or more. Should customers arrive in the meantime they find the prices of goods plainly marked, select what they want and leave the money for them.

EMPLOYERS ADVISED TO ADVOCATE UNIONS

Mr. Keating, in Addressing Women

Retail Clerks' Association,

Praises D. C. Merchants.

District merchants and manufacturers were advised to urge their employees to join a labor union by Edward Keating, secretary of the joint congressional commission on reclassification of salaries in the District, addressing the Women Retail Clerks' Protective Association at the Public Library last night.

"District merchants gave a fine example of Americanism when they themselves advocated the District minimum wage legislation," declared Mr. Keating. "Now hope they won't falter. They did a fine thing. They now can do an even finer thing by saying, 'There is strength in organization.' They should advise their employees to become members of a union."

Predicts All Will Organize.

Predicting the day would come when even the ministers will organize, and every man and woman who labors will belong to an organization, Mr. Keating expressed the hope that the women especially will be as completely organized as the men, for they need organization more, he said.

"You know more Gertrude McNally and Ethel Smith in this town and every other town," said the speaker. He said that in his work in Congress the two things he was particularly proud of were his connection with the federal act in relation to child labor and the minimum wage legislation for the women and children of the District.

"No nation is stronger than its women and children," Mr. Keating declared. "We spend billions organizing armies and navies, and yet good, sound public policy would dictate that we should spend more on mothers and children."

Child Entitled to Chance.

"There are two million children and eight million women going out to work every day. This is a condition that should not be permitted to continue, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association, presided.

"PICKETS" DROP SUITS.

Suffragettes' Claims for $800,000

Date Back to Events of 1917.

The suffragette "pickets" have withdrawn damage suits aggregating $800,000 filed in the District Supreme Court and in the United States district court for the eastern district of Virginia, growing out of their detention and alleged mistreatment at Occoquan in 1917. The local suits were brought against Louis Brownlow, W. Gwynn Gardiner and Charles Kutz, then members of the board of District Commissioners, and Louis F. Zinghan, then superintendent of the Washington Asylum and jail. The suits in Virginia named as defendants Supt. Whitaker and Deputy Supt. Reams of Occoquan. The suits grew out of the arrest of a number of women, including the plaintiffs, for unlawful assembly in picketing the White House with banners.

Attorney M. E. O'Brien, representing the women, stated that although an agreement had been reached with Corporation Counsel Stephens for a small money judgment in the Virginia cases, the plaintiffs declined to accept the money, being satisfied with what they considered a vindication and directed the dismissal of the suits.

One of the finest private collections of pearls is that in possession of the Dowager Queen Margherita of Italy, whose birthday present from her husband, the late King Humbert, was always a string of these gems. The jewels, at least in so far as the children are concerned. Every child is entitled to its chance. Society, if not the parents, must give each child its chance. There is no greater chance before the world than 'What shall we do with our children?'"

Miss Ina Courtney, president of the association,